The Buzz: Habitat fundraiser; tax prep help at Northgate

ALEX DIXON, The Buzz Updated Jan 17, 2016

Tax prep center opens at Northgate

DURHAM — The North Carolina Taxpayer Assistance Center, coordinated by Reinvestment Partners, will open to the public beginning Tuesday, Jan. 19 and continuing through April 15 in suite 856 on the Plaza near Entrance 4 at Northgate Mall.

This IRS-sponsored volunteer program is part of a coalition effort of Reinvestment Partners, Duke Law School, North Carolina Central University School of Law and North Carolina Legal Aid.

The program provides tax preparation to North Carolina residents with low- to moderate-income, which is generally categorized at $54,000 and below, who cannot prepare their own current-year tax returns.

Appointment for the service is required by calling (919) 286-1-TAC (1822) or going to www.nc-tac.com

Habit for Humanity ReStore hosting silent auction

Habitat for Humanity ReStore will hold a Tom Clark Collection Silent Auction event starting Monday night, Jan. 18 and running through Saturday, Jan 23.

Thanks to a donor, ReStore has more than 50 different Clark figurines to purchase. Clark is the lead artist for Cairn Studio.

ReStore's website, www.restoredurhamorange.org/tomclark, lists all the figurines available in the auction and all bids must be made in-store at at 5501 Durham-Chapel Hill Blvd.
